10 v.) ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S
11 ALEJANDRO GURANY,) MOTION FOR TRANSPORTATION
12 Defendant.) EXPENSES
13

14
15 THE COURT, having considered the Defendant's motion, and the files and 16 records herein, makes the following findings of fact:

17 1. The defendant is scheduled to appear for his change of plea hearing on 18 September 25, 2017, at 2:30 p.m. Mr. Gurany resides in El Paso, Texas, and is 19 financially unable to pay for transportation expenses to attend the hearing; and,

20 2. The interests of justice would be served by the provision of transportation
21 by the government as authorized by 18 U.S.C. § 4285.

22 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendant's motion is GRANTED in part,
23 and the United States Marshal is hereby directed to provide defendant with non-
24 custodial transportation from his home in El Paso, Texas, to the Western District of 25 Washington, to-wit including round-trip airfare or ticket to enable him to attend his 26 change of plea hearing on September 25, 2017.

Specifically, it is ordered that the U.S. Marshals:

1. Arrange and pay for the Mr. Gurany's non-custodial, roundtrip transportation from El Paso, Texas to Seattle, Washington, arriving in the early morning on September 25, 2017, in order for him to be present in this district for his required court appearance at 2:30 p.m. on September 25, 2017; and then returning to El Paso, Texas on the evening of September 25, 2017.

DONE this 21st day of September, 2017.

Robert S. Lasnik
United States District Judge
